Southeast Neighborhood School of Excellence (SENSE) receives a rating of exceeds standard for Core Question 2.1 because it met standard for every sub-indicator. At the September 2013 Count Day, the Indiana Department of Education (IDOE) indicated that school had 423 students enrolled. This is 106% of the 400 students that the school promised the community it would serve in its charter contract.

The school met standard for its February Enrollment Variance. This sub-indicator is calculated by dividing the number of students enrolled in the school on the February 2014 Count Day conducted by the Indiana Department of Education divided by the number of students enrolled at the time of the September 2013 Count Day. IDOE indicated that the school had 415 students enrolled at the February Count Day. This represents 98% of the number of students enrolled at the time of the September Count Day.

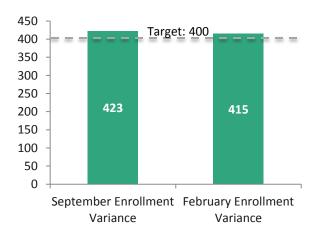

With regard to its current ratio, the school met standard meaning that it had current assets (cash or other assets that can be accessed in the next 12 months) that exceeded its current liabilities (debt obligations due in the next 12 months) by 10% or more.

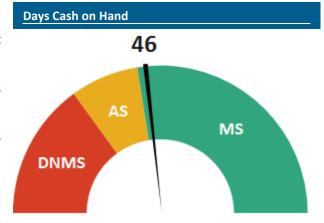

Additionally, the school ended the year with 46 days cash on hand and met standard for this ratio. Days cash on hand is an important measure of a charter school's fiscal health because it indicates how many more days after June 30, 2014, the school would have been able to operate at its seem spending levels without receiving a tuition support payment from IDOE

Lastly, the school met standard for debt default. This metric is determined by both the auditors' comments in the audited financial statements and contact with the school's creditors. In the case of SENSE, neither its auditors nor its creditors provided any indication that the school had defaulted on its debt obligations.

Based on the summary of these sub-indicator ratings, SENSE exceeded standard for Core Question 2.1.
